

PRINCIPAL ARTS LEADERSHIP AWARD

Initiated by Mayor Kevin Johnson's office and For Arts' Sake in coordination with the Sacramento County Office of Education Leadership Institute and Arts Education Programs, and CCSEA Arts Initiative

WHAT?

For Arts' Sake has created the Principal Arts Leadership (PAL) Award, a new program to honor principals who honor the ARTS.

For Arts' Sake and their partners invite you to nominate a principal who demonstrates effective arts leadership for this new award program. A panel of educators will review nominations and select three individuals who exemplify the best of arts leadership. Nominees will be notified Friday, February 10, 2012.

This program is sponsored and funded in part by the Sacramento County Office of Education Leadership Institute and the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation.

WHEN?

November 28, 2011 - January 30, 2012	Nominations accepted for the 2011-2012 school year
February 6-10, 2012	Judging of nominated candidates
March 6, 2012 (8:00 AM - 1:00 PM)	Regional Arts Education Forum
March 6, 2012 (12:00 PM - 1:00 PM)	Luncheon and Arts Award Presentation (to be held at the David P. Meaney Education Center)

WHY?

This awards program is intended to cast a light on those principals who stay true to a vision that the visual and performing arts enliven, motivate, and facilitate student success. The goal is to collect stories about the heroic actions on the part of area principals who have provided students quality arts learning opportunities through strategic collaborations, innovations, persistence, and effective partnerships.
